THOUGHT DOCKER T. WAS A KIDNAPPER

ATTEMPT HAS BEEN MADE TO KIDNAP ULTRICH'S DAUGHTER LATELY

New York, March 23.—Developments today in the Becker T. Washington assault case indicate that he was mistaken for a negro supposed to have been retained to kidnap the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. Albert Ulrich. Some two weeks before, it is reported, called at the Ulrich apartment in a plan to obtain the child. When Washington was seen in the vestibule of the house and the neighborhood, he was mistaken for the negro.

It was assumed that he was waiting to seize the girl and spirit her away. Ulrich, informed of his presence, according to the story, attacked the negro. According to Wilford H. Smith, Washington's attorney, this is the motive for the assault on the educator. Smith is said to have obtained the names of several witnesses living in the neighborhood of the assault, and can prove that it was unprovoked. In view of these developments he said he might ask District Attorney Wholman to interest himself in the matter and present the case to the grand jury in order to have an indictment issued charging felonious assault.

Mr. Ulrich's daughter is Dolores Alvarez. Her father is a man of Spanish birth. He was Mrs. Ulrich's former husband. Smith is at present investigating the contents of a letter from A. W. Abbott, agent of the Children's Aid Society of Orange, N. J., which intimates that Ulrich's correct name is Henry Adam Ulrich instead of Albert, and that he has a wife in Orange.

Wanted His Child
Some weeks ago Alvarez threatened, it is reported to Smith, to get his child from the flat in which Ulrich lived. He appeared with a negro and said he intended to take Dolores away with him. She locked herself in a room to prevent their getting the girl. When Mrs. Ulrich saw Washington in the neighborhood, Smith believes, she thought she recognized him as the negro who had accompanied her one-time husband, and broke the news to Ulrich. The latter, believing an attempt at kidnaping was about to be made, according to the lawyer's reasoning, attacked the educator.

James I. McGraw, the attorney representing Mr. Ulrich, said the kidnapping story was new to him. He had never heard even an intimation of it, he said. He would enquire about it as soon as he saw the Ulrichs, he said. The Ulrichs could not be found at their home.

Washington delivered an address last night in the chapel of the Drew Theological Seminary, in Madison, N. J. Six hundred persons were present. Washington received an ovation. He made no reference to the attack upon him.

HAD FIRE OCCURS AT PANAMA CANAL

Colon, March 23.—A fierce fire raged today in Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Bolivar and D Streets. More than fifty houses were destroyed and the local fire forces from the Canal Zone found great difficulty in checking the flames. As a last resort dynamite was used to blow up several buildings as the flames were creeping close to the Canal Zone houses.

About fifty houses and three churches were destroyed. A few small houses in the Canal Zone, occupied by laborers, were among those burned. The commissary, containing stock valued at $1000,000 only a hundred yards from the burned district was saved.

Sixty men from the United States gunboat Paducah, rendered assistance and a fire brigade was brought over from Panama City.

Several lives are reported to have been lost.

The material damage done will reach $300,000.

GOVERNOR O'NEAL OPPOSED TO LONG

FIGHT OVER ABOILITION OF THE BACK TAX COMMISSION—FIRST COMES TODAY

Montgomery, Ala., March 24.—

More pressure has been brought to bear to defeat the bill to limit the powers of the County Back Tax Commission than was brought to bear in the fight for the Parks Local option.

This is the statement of J Lee Long, President of the State Tax Commission, and an apologist of Governor O'Neal. This statement is also heartily concurred in by Walker Percy, representative from Jefferson county who has led the fight for the bill to take away from the County Tax Commission their fees in the interest of raising taxes and invest the power in the State Tax Commission.

The absolute break between Governor O'Neal and Mr Long is the signal for a new line-up in politics in Alabama. Hitherto Mr Long has supported every bill that Governor O'Neal has suggested. At this time Mr Long is aligned with Mr Percy, and Mr Percy is recognized as the man who is inimical to the purpose of the administration.

High Ground Taken.

Mr Long takes the step from the high ground that the bill is a just one. Mr Percy does the same. But in political circles it is frequently talked that there has been a coalition between Lee Long and Walker Percy which will be hard to beat.

In the earlier part of the House session Mr Long and Mr Percy were diametrically opposed on every bill. Mr Long compelled the admiration of Mr Percy by reason of the fact that he fought a losing battle in the same spirit in which he fought a winning one.

Although Mr Long was an opponent of Mr Percy, Mr Percy has since been a most ardent advocate of Mr Long's Tax Commission measure. Mr Long, as is Mr Percy, is convinced the Back Tax Commission is an absolute failure from the viewpoint of equalization of taxes. They think that there is no basis under the present system on which the counties can be equalized.

New System Changes.

Under the new system as provided in the Pogram bill, all this authority will be vested in the State Tax Commission. The State Tax Commission is composed of J Lee Long, admittedly one of the wisest judges of political conditions in Alabama, Judge A A Evans, whose experience on the Supreme Court bench has given him a fine judicial mind, and John B Powell, a tax expert.

Under the provisions of the new bill it is believed that these gentlemen can satisfactorily perform the duties incumbent on them from the viewpoint of politics, law, and a judicial revision of taxes. They believe they can do this regardless of the Back Tax Commission. They also hold that the Back Tax Commission is absolutely useless.

Big Fight Expected.

Mr Long, who has been one of the most potent forces in the Legislature is out campaigning for the measure to reduce the power of the County Back Tax Commission. He is joined by Mr Percy, who, outside of Mr Long, has been regarded as the most powerful anti-administration force. This line up, it is taken, will give much trouble to the Arnold-Pitts aggregation, who defend the Governor in every act.

The test will be brought Friday. In the meantime the question is Can the power of the Governor be greater than the power and influence of Mr Percy and Mr Long? The fight is looked to with the greatest of interest.

For your ice cream Sunday, 'phone Nix Drug Company.

R. T. Montgomery, of Bessemer, was here a while today.

JAP TO PROSECUTE "WHITE CAPPLERS"

WILL FILE COMPLAINT AGAINST EIGHT COLORADO ORCHARDISTS

Denver, Colo., March 23.—T

Ichikawa, secretary of the Japanese Association of Colorado left tonight for Delta, Colo., to file complaints against eight orchardists in that section, charging inciting to riot.

The orchardists, whose names are withheld, but who are said to be prominent, are accused of "white cappling" four Japanese employed on a farm near Delta. Ichikawa says he has evidence to prove that the eight men raided the hut occupied by the aliens and forced them to leave the country. Complaints of unprovoked assaults on Japanese there today resulted in the arrest of four bad grown boys three of whom are connected with a telegraph messenger service.

Last night, it is alleged a Japanese house cleaning establishment was bombarded with stones and bricks. Four arrests resulted.

Strict orders have been issued to patrolmen to protect Japanese and their property.

Ice cream made from fresh strawberries and pure sweet cream at Nix Drug Company. Phone your orders for Sunday. Any quantity you want from a quart up.

REBELS GATHER AROUND JUAREZ

ATTACK UPON TOWN FEARED BY INHABITANTS—SENTINELS ON LOOKOUT

Juarez, Mex., March 23.—The people of Juarez were kept at a high nervous tension today by knowledge that insurgents had been seen near the city in great numbers and by reports that an attack on the place was to be made a part of a general revolutionary movement which included an attack on Chihuahua, 235 miles south of here.

A large band of insurgents passed on the Mexican side of the Rio Grand opposite Socorro, Tex., fifteen miles east and then disappeared. As soon as he heard of it, General Navarro sent out a troop of cavalry. It was reported that between 200 and 300 insurgents were in the band.

Armed Sentinels on Roofs.

The movement of the federal troops caused anxiety in the city where armed sentinels were kept on the roofs as a lookout. The old mission church with the rifle loopholes made in the walls, bore the appearance of a blockhouse.

The belief that Madero, with 1,200 men is encamped north of Chihuahua and that between him and the city is General Rabago with 800 federals on the defensive apparently was confirmed today with the arrival here of W. B. Harold, an American, who came from Chihuahua in an automobile.

Rabago Building Defenses.

At Saus, thirty-two miles north of Chihuahua he met General Rabago, who was building defenses to prevent a march on the city. Rabago had been marching south along the Mexican National Railroad ever since he left Juarez.

A short distance south of Ahumada Harold encountered Captain Oscar O. Creighton with an insurgent band. Creighton told Harold he would join Madero at a point fifteen miles north of Chihuahua and that after the insurgents had arrived it was planned to attack the city.

A C Williams, of Montgomery, spent a few hours today in the city on business.

Friday, March 24, 1911

When former Secretary Ballinger went to leave Washington he called on President Taft to shake hands with him and assure him of the good time he had during all these years. President Taft didn't hesitate to let Ballinger know that his services had been entirely satisfactory, and that if he ever wanted a letter of recommendation he could get it.

Col. William F. Cody is a candidate before the Arizona Legislature for the United States senate. If the small boys of the country had a vote on it, and many of their fathers, Col. Cody would ride right on in the national Capital on his iron gray horse, the one he used to ride in his show, when doing that fancy shooting. There is no special reason why the old scout shouldn't be sent to the senate, for he is a man of ability, and it has been such a practice for the new states of the west to send men there who were able to buy the legislature, till sending him would be a welcome change.

"DELAYED SENSATION"

The medical man tells us of a thing he calls "delayed sensation."

For instance: The end of the finger comes in contact with a red hot stove, the nerves delegated to run and tell the brain about it, have a slow action. They don't hurry fast enough, and this state of the nervous system is properly called "delayed sensation."

Governor O'Neal is suffering with that form of nervous disease, as we medical men can see.

He has been governor of Alabama for some several weeks. He found some laws on the statute books when he went into office that he didn't approve of, especially those that dealt with the whiskey problem. Although he knew that the prohibition laws were being violated all over the state, he sent no orders to the sheriffs to enforce the laws. He, with many others, thought it but a question of a few days when some new laws would be passed regulating and modifying the prohibition laws, so he didn't bother about it, and no one was surprised or disappointed in him. But we get evidence that he is suffering from "delayed sensation" from his recent circular letters sent out to the sheriffs, giving them instructions to enforce the laws, especially the prohibition laws.

Had he done this immediately on assuming the duties of office of governor it would have occasioned no remarks, although, as above stated, no one expected such a move. But when he sends out a request for law enforcement now, just at a time when everybody is expecting the local option laws to become effective, there is no question about the diagnosis; he has what we said he had.

You see when he came in contact with the people a few weeks ago, they told him they wanted law enforcement, but owing to this peculiar disease, he has just now been informed of the peculiar condition, and there is no other name for it in the category of medicine—a first year student can read correctly the symptoms of his excellency.

"It is reported to me that in different sections of the state there are continuous and flagrant violations of the prohibition laws and that the violators of these laws find in public sympathy or official lethargy immunity from their actions."

That's the way the governor puts it.

That report was really made to him two or three months ago, but it is just now getting connection with the brain cells that put the mind and body in action. His disease is so bad till he wouldn't have known this sensation, but for the fact it looks like some of the whiskey regulation bill will be spoiled. Something should be done as a bluff at law enforcement.

CHUCKLEHEADS ON

Under the heading of "Chuckleheads," the Reporter (Kan.) Gazette takes some of the citizens of that state across the editorial knee in the following well chosen remarks:

"In what part of Kansas is Baynesville? Some mistake was made in locating that town. It should have been in Alabama or Louisiana."

"The Baynesville neighborhood enjoys the rural free delivery system, and recently a colored gentleman was appointed a carrier. When he went forth upon his route, distributing Sawbuck catalogs and packages of congressional literature to the farmers, those sturdy yeomen reared up on their hind limbs and made a frightful howl. They wouldn't accept their mail from a negro. They made a roar at the post office, and that did no good. So they began taking down their mail boxes, and now they go to the postoffice for their catalogs and bulletins from the patent office."

"Isn't it about time for Kansas to rise superior to foolish and unjust prejudices of that sort? Many fine things are said about the equality of the negro citizen, and school privileges are given his children, and he is permitted to pay his taxes just like a white man, and in theory he stands upon the same level as any of his neighbors; but whenever he tries to fill some position, outside of manual labor, there is a frenzied howl. Several instances of the kind have occurred in Kansas in recent times, so the Baynesville farmers don't deserve all the criticism."

"Oklahoma has been held up to public scorn upon many occasions because of her jim crow laws and grandfather clauses and such things, but it is possible that the Oklahoma attitude toward the negro is more praiseworthy than the Kansas attitude. Oklahoma is at least quite frank, and cannot be charged with hypocrisy. She doesn't put the negro on the back with her hand and kick him lower down with her foot."

So you see that wherever the negro roams, wherever he acquires citizenship, matters not the political banner the state fur, he meets about the same treatment that he would in "Louisiana" or "Alabama." Two states that have achieved some distinction for standing up for certain rules governing the two races.

Alabama hasn't a negro rural letter carrier, that we know of, but the cities are full of letter carriers. We don't kick and go to the office for our mail in such cities, although we do believe that it would be done in the country if a rural letter carrier showed up, just like they do in good old Kansas, which keeps John Brown's body marching on.

"In Alabama we don't eat and sleep with the negro, nor have mixed schools, but we don't mind working shoulder to shoulder, or hoeing and plowing row after row with him, but the white man takes the first swig from the water gourd."

In some sections of the North, they will not work on the same building, or on public jobs with the negro, but they will send their children to schools with the negroes, take rides and strolls, arm in arm with him in a social way.

Different localities have different ideas about the two races.

The negro, himself, when he sees both forms, though, rather enjoys the Southern form to the Northern. He knows that he comes nearer getting all that is coming to him as a man and a citizen.

Texas and Republicans.

Here is a story that was heard in the lobby of the Willard last night, attributed to Representative-elect Martin W. Littleton of New York, says the Washington Herald. Mr. Littleton was in Washington recently as a guest at the banquet given by the University Club. When he was called upon for a story, speech he related the following story:

"A young Vermont lawyer who had been graduated from college, desirous of making a name for himself, wrote to an elderly Texas lawyer inquiring what the prospects were in the Lone Star State for a bright young lawyer. In the course of his appeal, the Vermontor stated, among other things:

"I am honest, and a Republican."

"In a week or so the Texas attorney replied to the communication from the Yankee;

"I note that you say that you are honest. If so, you will have absolutely no opposition among the lawyers of Texas. I also note that you are a Republican. That being the case, you need have absolutely no fear on this account. The game warden of Texas will provide for your entire safety. Come at once."

Don't miss the lecture Friday night at the Elite. You will be helping the headland Avenue Baptist Church ladies pay for their pews and to hear about the Passion Play will help you. Price 25 cents.

CONDUCTOR GETS PROMOTION

From Jackson (Tenn.) Sun.

As a recognition of his past faithful and efficient service, C. C. Pruitt, a former well known conductor of the M. & O. railroad, and one of Jackson's most highly esteemed citizens, has been justly rewarded by the general manager of the road, by being appointed station master at Mobile, Ala., which is one of the finest positions of its kind on the entire system.

The letter informing Mr. Pruitt of the promotion, says: "I beg to advise that I have appointed you as station master of the Gulf Terminal Co. at Mobile, effective April 1, at a salary of $150 a month."

Mr. Pruitt, on the night of the 16 of January, a year ago, had the misfortune while performing his duty as conductor to lose his left hand.

There is not a more popular or affable railroad man and gentleman in the city than Clarence Pruitt, and the announcement of his promotion will be received by his friends, who are legion, with much gratification, although it is with profound regret to them that he and his most estimable family will leave Jackson.

Mr. Pruitt entered the service of the M. & O. railroad as brakeman in 1899 and was promoted to the position of conductor in 1905. During that period he received a reward for efficient service, 185 merit and not a single demerit mark.

Mr. Pruitt's parents live in Dothan, where he has visited and their many friends here are glad of his promotion.

TWO BONAPARTES.

Former Attorney-General Bonaparte of Baltimore is panic stricken at the thought of foreign invasion.

"Any one of several great powers today," he says, "could land on our shores, tenfold the number of soldiers we have placed on the Mexican border, in less time than was needed to bring Gen. Rose's brigade across the Atlantic in 1814."

Two hundred thousand men are quite a large army to move by sea 3,000 miles or more. To bring them across the ocean would require an immense fleet of transports, an entire navy of war ships to convoy them and a third fleet of vessels to provision and coal the expedition.

Another Bonaparte, who is generally credited with having possessed a little military talent, conceived the idea as long ago as 1797 of landing an army in England. He harbored the plan for some years afterward. In 1803 he assembled on the coast of the English Channel near Boulogne an imposing army, built a great number of flat transport-boats and practiced the infantry in sea service. It was one of the finest and best armies ever at Napoleon's disposal, but he never dared attempt landing in England. The same year the army of 80,000 men that Napoleon sent to Hayti under Gen. Leclerc to quell a negro insurrection was driven from the island.

Perhaps Napoleon Bonaparte lacked the imagination of Charles Joseph Bonaparte. It may be that he lacked the American Bonaparte's knowledge of the science of war. It only he had had the Baltimore lawyer's help he might have invaded and captured England. Moving hundreds of thousands of troops not merely across the Channel but across the Atlantic is easy for a man who was Secretary of the Navy for a few months.—New York World.

WHAT ABOUT BASE BALL?

That is the question now being asked many times during the day on the streets of Dothan, but up until press time remains unanswered. According to the present outlook there will be nothing doing along the lines of base ball this summer and while the surrounding towns are enjoying good games of the national sport the fans of Dothan will likely be sitting around like a crowd of hookworm subjects, playing checkers or watching the negroes play.

The sporting editor of the Eagle, if anyone will acknowledge the fact that they are acting in this capacity, is getting tired of being asked every few hours in the day about the invisible base ball team of Dothan, being unable to give them any answer.

The old players have been out practicing and some good material is showing up on the diamond but this is no good without organization. A good nine could be organized here with little or no trouble and if it is seen that a hired team could not be financed, one of amateurs could be put on the diamond.

Columbia and all of the surrounding towns and villages are organized already and are getting into fine shape for the coming season, but nothing has yet been done in Dothan towards having any games.

The ball park is as good as could be wanted, a good grandstand, good fences and an excellent field to work upon and as for the finances, it looks as if a small capital could run the bunch.

This capital can be collected easily, or rather, has been for several seasons from the fans, who no doubt are as eager for ball this year as they ever were and would contribute as freely. Star the ball to rolling now and in a short time with little work, we'll call the game.

VACANT PROPERTY FOR INVESTMENT.

Income from property is derived from rents and the increase in value due to the increase in the population of a city.

Experience has proven that vacant property well located, free from insurance charges, is one of the most valuable classes of investments. The increase in rents of close in property drives people to the ownership of vacant property farther out and therefore brings it into demand.

We offer a lot on the A. C. L. transfer spur tract, 220x393x319, the longest dimension being track frontage, ideal for warehouse, manufacturing site, etc., for $2000.

The average sale advertisement is mostly blow and big words. The merchandise offered is of unknown value: hence there are hundreds of ways to keep the buyer from getting a square deal.

But when a store offers merchandise known all over the world to be of the highest standard at prices lower than usual there's money in buying that merchandise.

That is what this store is doing. Selling BOYDEN SHOES, HOWARD & FOSTER SHOES, CLUETT SHIRTS, ARROW COLLARS, STETSON HATS, ONYX HOSIERY, and such at less than usual prices. We are doing this at the beginning of the season too. Yes, we lose some money, but charge it to advertising expenses.

Why do we do this? To get the men's trade of South-east Alabama. A wide acquaintance is worth money, and we are willing to pay money for it. ARE YOU WISE?

Cottolene

Better Patronize your Grocer than your Doctor

Nine-tenths of all human ills start from stomach trouble. Lard-cooked food, greasy and indigestible, is the cause of most stomach troubles. The remedy is in the hands of your cook—not your doctor.

Cottolene is a vegetable-oil cooking fat that is far superior to lard, butter or any other fat for frying and shortening.

Cottolene is pure in its source; it comes from the cotton fields of the Sunny South, and is made from the choicest of pure, refined cotton oil.

Cottolene is manufactured in a cleanly manner, amid the most favorable sanitary surroundings.

Cottolene is packed in air-tight, friction-top pails to insure its freshness and prevent it from absorbing dust and odors of the grocery. We authorize your grocer to refund your money if Cottolene is found to be other than fresh and satisfactory.

Cottolene makes healthful food, and food which any stomach can digest. It is worth more per pound than lard or any imitation, because—being richer—it will go one-third farther and is therefore most economical.

From Cottonfield to Kitchen—Human Hands Never Touch the Oil from which Cottolene is made.

THE MAN ON THE BOX

Barab, Cal., March 22.—Mrs. J. C. Clemens of Pottsville, Pa., as the result of mistaken identity, yesterday received attentions intended for Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt.

At the hotel here where Mrs. Roosevelt had engaged accommodations, was assigned to go to Los Angeles to attend Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter, Miss Ethel, on the trip north.

When the clerk greeted Mrs. Clemens she immediately assumed the part in a spirit of fun, during the 100-mile journey the clerk was very attentive. The hotel management had arranged for a special carriage to meet the distinguished guests at the depot and Mrs. Clemens and her two daughters rode in it to the hotel while Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter occupied the ordinary hotel bus.

Both Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel were very much amused when informed of the blunder.

FUNERAL MINUS A CORPSE

New York, March 22.—A funeral parade of 10,000 persons without a corpse was sanctioned today by Mayor Gaynor upon application of Orthodox Jewish worshippers at the Old Trinity Street Synagogue, recently destroyed by fire. The ceremonial will mark the burial on Sunday next of sacred relics taken from the ruins and said to be the first of the king ever held in America.

Golden books of the Hebrew law and silver ornaments from Jerusalem will be conveyed in coffins in the vanguard of the procession. Two hundred carriages, it was announced, will follow the hearse, while an army of the Orthodox believers will trudge on foot. A religious ceremony will be held over the relics as a synagogue and the marchers will then proceed to Bayside cemetery, Brooklyn, where the coffin will be interred.

Mrs. H. C. Calvin, who has been visiting her mother in Dallas, Texas, for several weeks, returned home last night.

DEATH OF HASTING CHILD

Miss Dora Hastings, the leading lady in "The Man on the Box," attraction at the Elite last night, was notified by wire during the first act of the play that her brother's child had died in Chicago.

Under great strain, Miss Hastings continued her role, with all apparent ease, but collapsed as the curtain went down on the last act.

The company left this morning for Bafnbridge.

CHANDLER, Okla.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Ella Flowers says, "I hardly know how to thank you for the good that Cardui has done me. Many women are completely worn out and discouraged on account of womanly weakness. Are you? Have you not tried Cardui? It only needs a few doses to convince you that Cardui want.

KANSAS WOMAN HELPLESS

Lawrence, Kas.—Mr. J. F. Stone, of this city, says, "My wife suffered for ten years from womanly troubles, during two years of which she was totally helpless. She was examined by many physicians, some of whom gave her up to die. Finally she began to take Cardui, and since then has greatly improved in health. The tonic, strengthening, and restorative effects of Cardui, the woman's tonic, on the womanly constitution, are the most valuable qualities of this popular medicine. Cardui acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Half a century of success proves that Cardui will do all that is claimed for it. Try it for your trouble."

TWO DISTINCT SALVATIONS
ALL IN ONE OR THE OTHER.

London, March 19.—Pastor Russell preached today at the London Tabernacle to an overflowing house. His text was taken from Hebrews 11, 3: "So great salvation which began to be spoken by our Lord and was confirmed unto us by those who heard Him."

Pastor Russell observed that according to our creeds the salvation will not be so great, but rather so little, so few—only the saints of millions. He thought it evident, therefore, that the creeds were in error and quoted the prophecy that the Bavior would see the fruitage of the "travail of His soul and be satisfied" (Isaiah 53, 11). The Pastor did not believe that Jesus would be satisfied with His work if it reached merely a handful from eternal torture. He quoted various Scriptures which afford a larger hope, declaring that God sent not His Son into the world to damn the world, but "that the world through Him might be saved" from the condemnation already upon it because of Father Adam's disobedience. These Scriptures cannot be applied to the Church, but must be held as applicable to the world. Of the Church Jesus says, "Ye are not of the world."

Theologians for centuries have missed the keynote of the Bible, which is that the salvation of the saints is the true Church or Bride of the Lamb, is merely a preliminary work—only the salvation of a "first-fruit" (James 1, 18). This first-fruit class or "Church of the First-born" is to have a different salvation entirely from that which is provided for the world. The Church is to constitute God's Kingdom, for which we pray, "Thy Kingdom come." Under its Messianic sway God's will will be done on earth even as in heaven.

The World's Salvation Earthly.

As the Scriptures show distinctly that the salvation of the Church, or the Kingdom class, is to a heavenly plane or condition, they equally show that the salvation of the world is different—an earthly salvation. To the Church the Apostle wrote, "We must all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, because flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God" (1 Corinthians xv, 50-52). Of the world's salvation we read not of a change of nature, but of a Restitution to the perfection of the nature already given to man, but lost through the sin of our first parents—redeemed through the merit of the precious sacrifice at Calvary. The Restitution salvation which is to come to the world through the changed and glorified Messianic Church is described by St. Peter as awaiting its due time—the Second Coming of Christ—"Times of Restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all the Holy Prophets since the world began" (Acts iii, 19-23).

The fact is that the Old Testament Scriptures treat entirely of the Restitution blessings. Incidentally mentioning also things pertaining to the great Messiah, through Whom those blessings will come. Christians have neglected study of the Old Testament Scriptures and hence have failed to get their blessing. Prior to the coming of Jesus no one ever dreamed of the First Resurrection change to spirit nature. Everybody had the Restitution view of salvation in mind—the hope of being raised up out of death to human perfection. Hence it was not necessary for the Apostles to emphasize this feature. Rather they drew the attention of their hearers away from the earthly prospects, which are for the world, and gave them the message of the "high calling."

The High Calling Closing.

Now that the "high calling" is drawing to a close, having accomplished its election or salvation of the saintly handful, Divine providence is pointing us back to the Old Testament, that we may appreciate more than ever the "length and breadth and height and depth of the love of God which passeth understanding." Now we begin to see that the Scriptures foretell that Israel is to be the first amongst the nations to receive Messiah's blessing, as soon as His Kingdom shall have been established. Now we see how all the families of the earth will be blessed; not only through the Spiritual Seed of Abraham, typified by Isaac, and the Church, typified by Rebecca, but also through Abraham's natural seed these blessings will proceed to every nation under heaven. "All the blinded eyes shall be opened." "All the deaf ears shall be unstopped." "The knowledge of the Lord shall fill the earth." "The earth shall yield her increase." "The wastes and deserts shall blossom as the rose."

Ultimately the Paradise of Eden will bloom again, world-wide—God's footstool made glorious. The resurrection of the dead is the salvation which God has promised, even as death itself is the penalty which He has proclaimed for sin. The resurrection will not only include the awakening of those who have gone into the tomb, but, additionally, the uplifting (resurrecting) of Adam and all His family from sin and death conditions, weakness, meanness, depravity, etc.—up to full human perfection in the image of God, as Adam was before he sinned, plus increased knowledge.
